SCHEDULE 2 PART 1

Lunacy - Percentages payable in the Office of Wards of Court

1. In this Part "clear annual income" does not include the following payments:
 - (a) unemployment assistance,
 - (b) old age (non-contributory) pension,
 - (c) widow's (non-contributory) pension,
 - (d) widower's (non-contributory) pension,
 - (e) deserted wife's allowance,
 - (f) prisoner's wife's allowance,
 - (g) one-parent family payment,
 - (h) blind pension.

2. Subject to paragraph 3 of this Part, a percentage on the clear annual income of each ward of court found to be of unsound mind and whose clear annual income is not less than €900 shall be payable according to the following rates:
 - (a) where the clear annual income is not less than €900 but is less than €2,250, 2.5 per cent of the clear annual income;

 - (b) where the clear annual income is not less than €2,250 but is less than €4,500, 3 per cent of the clear annual income;

 - (c) where the clear annual income is not less than €4,500, 4 per cent of the clear annual income, subject to a maximum payment of €750.

3. Any fractional part of €1.00 in the amount of a percentage shall be disregarded and shall not be levied or paid.

SCHEDULE 2 PART 2

Minor - Percentages payable in the Office of Wards of Court

1. A percentage on the clear annual income of each minor taken into the wardship of the High Court shall be payable at the same rates as apply to the incomes of wards of court who are of unsound mind, save that the percentage shall be charged only on that part of the clear annual income that exceeds €900.
2. Where a minor has an interest in property, the Registrar of Wards of Court may apportion as remuneration for any services rendered to the minor in connection therewith such part of the profits accruing to the minor from the property as appears to the Registrar to be reasonable and no percentage shall be charged on the amount thus apportioned.

SCHEDULE 2 PART 3

Calculation, Collection and Disposal - Percentages payable in the Office of Wards of Court

The rules heretofore in operation under the Lunacy Regulation (Ireland) Act 1871 with respect to the method of calculation, collection and disposal of the percentage charged on the incomes of persons of unsound mind shall continue to apply to the percentage charged on such incomes under this Order and shall apply likewise or in an analogous manner to the percentage charged on the incomes of minors under this Order. Where, in any such rule, reference is made to the death of a person of unsound mind, the reference shall, in its application to a minor, include a reference to the minor's attaining the age of 18 years.
